Bio

Déa Self was born in Bull Shoals, Arkansas. She received her Bachelor of Fine Art in Painting from the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville. After five years in Philadelphia, she moved back to Fayetteville in 2015. She currently lives in South Fayetteville and paints the creeks and trees in her neighborhood.

Artist Statement

I learn new things with each painting I create. I am currently "experimenting" with oils on wood panel. Light and shadow fascinate me. I strive to portray nature as I feel it, not necessarily how I see it. Realism is great and all, but have you tried Feelism? (insert meme here)
