Zeek Taylor

Bio

Zeek Taylor is a recipient of the Arkansas Governor's Art Award for Lifetime Achievement. In 2018, he received the "Idle Class" magazine Black Apple "Legacy Award." His work has been displayed in the Arkansas Arts Center: three times in the prestigious Delta Exhibition, and twice in the International Toys Designed by Artists Exhibition. Zeek's paintings have hung in the Arkansas Governor's Mansion, and he has received several "Best of Show" awards. Besides his career as a visual artist, he is the author of four books including "Out of the Delta, the Anthology." He is a public speaker who has made two appearances on the NPR "Tales from the South" show, and he gave a TedX talk in Bentonville, AR. A native Arkansan, Zeek lives and maintains a studio in Eureka Springs.

Artist Statement

I paint with greater concern for style over realism with a focus on pattern and color theory. The one rule that I adhere to is, "break the rules." ~Zeek Taylor
