

Where Summer Stayed, 14.5 x 34.5 x 1 inches, Acrylic on wood, $950.

Cailey Faucett

Artist Bio

Working primarily in acrylic paint for more than twenty years, my artistic practice is rooted in a deep appreciation for the natural world and the stories it quietly holds. For years now nature has served as both my subject and my muse. As a self-taught artist, I have developed an intuitive approach that combines careful observation with imagination, allowing each piece to evolve organically through layers of color, texture, & detail.

My work invites the gazer to slow down and engage with the beauty that surrounds them. By blending familiar elements of nature with subtle storytelling, I hope to create moments of reflection, wonder, and joy. Ultimately, my paintings are a celebration of the intricate rhythms of the natural world and a reminder that even the simplest details can hold meaning, magic, and inspiration.

Artist Statement

I am a self-taught artist whose work is inspired by a lifelong connection to the natural world. Drawn to the quiet magic found in forests, gardens, changing seasons, and overlooked details, I've been creating artwork that celebrates wonder, curiosity, & the beauty of everyday moments.

Through a whimsical yet intentional approach, I've found myself exploring the relationship between nature and imagination, blending observation with a sense of storytelling. I seek to invoke viewers to pause and reconnect with the small joys, textures, and rhythms that often go unnoticed in our busy world.