

 OUR ART
OUR REGION
OUR TIME

Nani & K.C.
20in x 16in
Photography
$125

Josiah Gill

<https://josiahgill.com/>
josiahgill

Bio

Josiah Gill is a documentary photographer who creates long term projects about ideas or groups of people that are often misunderstood by others. These topics have included vulnerability, mental health, the food service industry, adulthood, the music scene and more. His photographs are vulnerable and collaborative which helps bridge the divide between communities in order to establish new cultures. Grounding his images in the human experience and the elicitation of pathos in his viewer.

Artist Statement

Josiah Gill is a documentary photographer who creates long term projects about ideas or groups of people that are often misunderstood by others. These topics have included vulnerability, mental health, the food service industry, adulthood, the music scene and more. His photographs are vulnerable and collaborative which helps bridge the divide between communities in order to establish new cultures. Grounding his images in the human experience and the elicitation of pathos in his viewer.

