Bio

I am originally from Seoul, Korea and moved to the United States when I was 26. I am a visual artist and graphic designer living in Fayetteville, Arkansas. I was particularly attracted to line drawings and started with continuous line drawing. Naturally, I came across printmaking, which also plays with thick and thin lines. Most of my art is through linocut printmaking and drypoint etching printmaking.

Artist Statement

My freely express the feelings and experiences of being a mother, a woman, a wife and in navigating life. I want to convey the emotions and thoughts that "everyone must have felt in life, at least once." Feelings that are not alone.

"Sunshine after the Rain" is a printmaking.

Our life is not smooth. However, I believe that in our journey of life, a good day will come eventually. My inspiration come from the everyday - what I see in daily life. It can come from someone's expression, emotion, or feelings. My goal is when people see my art they can imagine it constantly and enjoy the moment.
