

 OUR ART
OUR REGION
OUR TIME

Ce n'est pas une nativite (This is not a nativity)

32" x 52"

oil on canvas

$2,000

Randy Spence

Bio

I am a retiree to NWA who in order to support my family opted for professional careers in engineering and software project management over that of the life of a starving artist. During that period I did however continue to create as time allowed and I am now pursuing my passion full time.

Artist Statement

The focus of my most recent work has been spiritual/religious in nature, specifically taking a more modernist/contemporary approach to the depiction of historically Christian themes and events. This piece is a pastiche of how René Magritte might have imagined the Holy Family in the manger, and is one of an ongoing series of how different 20th century artists might have approached this same subject matter.