Jesse Sandford

Bio

Jesse James Sandford is an artist and maker born and raised in the Arkansas Ozarks. Although he has no formal arts training, his curiosity and creativity have compelled him in a lifelong journey of experimentation and expression through various mediums. In recent years, his work has turned toward the use of found objects to explore the subjective nature of beauty and how we as a society assign value.

Artist Statement

Everything has beauty, but not everyone sees it. After a more than a decade of collecting random mismatched pieces of costume jewelry and castaway sparkly trash, I was finally able to complete this project.
